

Writing

Part 1

You have 20 minutes to write an email. Write 80–130 words.

You are a student at a college. First read the email from Mr Bell, a teacher. Then write an email to Mr Bell, including the three notes you have made.

FROM: Mr Bell
SUBJECT: College magazine

Hi there,

I am writing to tell you there will be a new college magazine starting next month. I hope you will read it.

That's a great idea!

We would also like to invite students to write articles for the magazine. Would you be interested in writing something?

Yes – say what you could do.

We are unsure whether to publish the magazine every week or every month. What do you think?

Explain ...

I look forward to hearing from you.

Mr Bell

Part 2

For Writing Part 2, choose one question, the essay OR the review.

Part 2 Essay

You have 25 minutes to write an essay. Write 100–160 words.

You have had a class discussion about mobile phones. Your teacher has asked you to write an essay. The title of the essay is:

Should using mobile phones be banned in all classrooms?

Write your essay.

Part 2 Review

You have 25 minutes to write a review. Write 100–160 words.

You have seen the following advert in an online magazine for English language students.

Write a review!

Write a review of a museum or an art gallery you have visited. What could you see there? What was special about the place? Could it be improved in any way?

The best reviews will be published in the magazine next month.

Write your review.
