

TED talks: Cameron Russell. Looks aren't everything, believe me, I'm a model.

https://www.ted.com/talks/cameron\_russell\_looks\_aren\_t\_everything\_believe\_me\_i\_m\_a\_model

1. How long has she been a model?

2. What was she wearing when she came on?

What did she change into?

3. What two adjectives does she use to describe "image"?

4. What is the first question?

What is the real answer?

5. What percentage of models in 2007 weren't white?

6. What is the second answer to the next question?

7. Are photos retouched?

8. Where were the photos she shows taken a short time before she did the photo shoot for French "Vogue"?

9. What examples does she give of the free things she gets?

10. Why are models insecure?

11. In the last bit, she talks about "a deck stacked in my favour". Explain what this means.